

Connecting disabled talent with opportunities

There are many barriers that impede disabled people from finding work and progressing in their careers. We work closely with disability groups, employment providers and one of our long-standing UK clients to connect disabled people with sustainable and often life-changing employment opportunities. To date we have supported 120 people into work with our client, 67% of whom have been in the position for more than one year.

Ready for Work

Skilling Up

Integrating and Including

